A 22-year-old Oxley man faces 85 charges of wilful damage after alleged graffiti attacks on trains, stations and buses around Brisbane.

The man was one of three people arrested by the State Crime Operations Command Graffiti Task Force in the past week on drugs, firearms and graffiti offences.

Police have raided two homes in Oxley and Rosalie.

At Oxley, where the 22-year-old man was arrested, police allegedly found drugs, drug utensils and a large amount of graffiti equipment.

The man faces 85 charges of wilful damage and charges of possessing graffiti tools, possession of a dangerous drug and possession of drug utensils.

Police will allege that almost all of the graffiti attacks were on trains, stations and buses.

At Rosalie, police allegedly found a quantity of drugs and charged a 20-year-old with possessing a dangerous drug and an unlicensed firearm.

A third person - also a 20 year old man - was arrested on Tuesday for the alleged graffiti on a train at Doomben train station.

The accused trio were all given notices to appear in court.
