THE Wandin Junior Football Club is disappointed that the work of graffiti vandals has marred its centenary celebrations.

Committee member Gayle Burgi said club members discovered the graffiti on the external clubroom wall and sponsorship signage on the last Thursday of the school holidays .

"It (vandalism) is pretty unusual; I have been at the club for four or five years and I have never seen anything like this," Ms Burgi said.

"It is very disheartening because we are a community club that has been around for 100 years, and it is obviously someone from within the Wandin community who has done this.

"It is disappointing that local kids or adults would do something like this to a community group that is helping local kids."

Ms Burgi said police could not offer much help as no witnesses to the incident had been found.
